All My Love

According to Jesus, the first commandment is to love God with heart, mind, soul, and strength. This is usually taken to mean loving God with your whole being. But it wouldn't hurt to look at the modern meanings of those words to see how we can apply them.

The heart is the symbol of our desires and love. So to love God with all your heart can mean that you recognize God as the one source of your life. That means you love God above everything and everyone. How many of us can say we would rather spend time with God, than with our friends, family, or loved ones?

To love God with all your mind can mean that you never stop thinking of God. You can ask God to help you any time you make a decision, whether it is what to watch next on TV, or what to do for a living. The better you know God, the more likely you are to hear God in your decisions. You can get to know God through the scriptures and other spiritual reading.

If the soul is the center of your spiritual life, then loving God with all your soul can remind you to listen to God when you pray. You might remember how annoying it can be to converse with someone who does all the talking. At first it is easy, but eventually you find yourself getting nervous because you have things you would like to say also. Think of that when you pray; give God a chance to put in a few words, too.

Finally, to love God with all your strength can mean you put as much energy into loving God as you do with exercising, doing your day-job, cleaning the house, or mowing the lawn. Just remember that no matter how hard you work for the Lord, God loves you even more than you love Him.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

National Vocation Awareness Week November 4 - 10, 2018

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy Priests, Deacons, and Consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation.

"Bishop DiMarzio has asked that all parishes establish a Vocations Committee. The purpose of a Vocations Committee is to meet periodically to discuss prayer campaigns, distribute materials and other ways that we can support the members of our Parish who have been called by our Lord to the religious life, to marry or to serve in another way. Resurrection does have a Vocation Committee, but there are only 1 or 2 participants. If you would like to participate in such a committee here at Resurrection Parish, please contact Teresa Zwosta at 718-891-1005.

LISTENING SESSION ON RACISM

Since the tragic and horrific events of Charlottesville Virginia just one year ago, we have seen the effect and impact that racism has had on our society. The Bishops of the United States has formed a committee to focus and address the sin of racism. Here in the Diocese of Brooklyn, Bishop DiMarzio has formed a commission on Racism and Social Justice. The goal of this commission is to deal with the social and religious problems that racism in all of its forms presents to us. The commission would like to hear from all of the faithful of the Diocese of Brooklyn. To that end we will be hosting an open listening session for all the faithful of the diocese to attend. This session is meant to be an opportunity for us to share how racism has impacted our parishes and the church as a whole. This session will be held on Saturday November 17th beginning at 11:00 a.m. at St. Mark Parish located at 2609 East 19th Street. ALL ARE INVITED.

Good Shepherd Men's Ministry Day of Reflection

On Saturday, November 10th the Good Shepherd Men's Fellowship Ministry will be holding a Day of Reflection in the Good Shepherd Academy Auditorium. All men are invited in what will be a worthwhile pause in your lives that will provide a little peace, a little spiritual enrichment, a little brotherhood, some laughs & some good food. It will be a time to relax and have fun, to pray, to examine your relationship with Christ and reflect on spiritual and life issues, to renew your faith in Christ with like-minded men. The day will begin at 8:00am & end with the group attending 5:00pm Mass together. There will be a guest speaker & activities that will be both fun & informative. Breakfast & lunch will be provided. The day is free. The only thing we ask is that you give us a little bit of your time.

If you are interested in attending, please email GSMFM0115@gmail.com or call Anthony Sotomayor (Director of the Ministry) at 347-707-0403 or Dennis Waszak (Secretary) 917-273-6041.
